AMENDMENT

Sir:

This is an answer to the Office Action, Paper No. not stated, Confirmation No. 5196, mailed 09/23/02 amending the case by adding a new claim.

Due to recent court decisions, it is required that an inventor claim all his inventions or they will otherwise be deemed given to the public domain.

To prevent loss of ownership of another unclaimed aspect of the instant invention, new Claim 23 is hereby entered -- fee enclosed.

The Office Action dated 06/16/2003 has been found by the Office to be defective. It has been cancelled by the office on the morning of June 30, 2003.

On the same day during the same telephone call, the addition of a single new claim on its own page was OK'd.

Please add the single sheet of Claim 23 to the other sheets of the main amendment already filed.
